JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI – November 12, 2020 – First Commercial Bank recently announced it has established a mortgage group that includes 13 talented team members focused exclusively on home lending. This is First Commercial's first dedicated mortgage team.

The announcement was made jointly by First Commercial's President and Chief Executive Officer Alan Walters, and Executive Advisor and President and CEO-in-Wait, Curt Gabardi.

"The addition of a mortgage team of this caliber is a very important strategic move for First Commercial Bank," said Walters. "It both broadens and strengthens our product offerings for our clients, and also positions us for further market penetration across our entire footprint."

Gabardi adds, "As our competitive point of differentiation begins and ends in retaining the most talented bankers in the markets we serve, the addition of a high-performing mortgage team is an exciting next step towards realizing our strategic vision as a talent and client-centric bank."

Our new mortgage banking team is a tremendous testament to these core beliefs.”
